This time of the year, budgets are mostly spent or planned to be spent and that is the main problem. All of our brochures, signage, and forms we use need to be replaced – the waste factor in this can be huge for some of us who buy in quantity to save money, and who have just gone through a name change and replaced everything. All of the standard ads we use need to be re-worked. True, the new ones and websites are easy enough in 60 days but I think a target date at the earliest, set for the end of 1Q07 is more reasonable from a $$ standpoint.
